

Sponsored by the Cub Run PTA: KidArt After School Art Classes - Tuesdays

Designed for elementary age school children 1st-6th, this process-oriented, fine art multi-media program is intended to enhance students' enjoyment of art and creative self-expression while building confidence and skill levels. The joy of individual expression is nurtured and celebrated with each young artist. Children are encouraged to develop their creativity and self-esteem using student-grade and professional-grade materials such as pen & ink, pastels, paints, and more.

Starts: April 24th (ends May 29th - 6 weeks) -- 3:35-4:50 PM

Where: Cub Run Elementary School - meets in POD A

Tuition: $102 - Includes all materials and supplies

Make check payable to "Joyce Taylor Homan" -- indicate "KidArt" on memo
Fill out registration form below and submit with check.

Please bring an art smock to first class: a roomy man's shirt is best. All students are expected to comply with FCPS rules of conduct during after-school activities. A child who fails to demonstrate behavior conducive to learning may be removed from the class without a refund. Parents are expected to pick up children from the school (children who attend SACC will return to SACC.) The PTA chairperson for this program is Catherine Stewart. Please contact her with questions at catherine.b.stewart@gmail.com.

Please fill out the registration form below and send it in to your child's teacher or drop it off in the office with your check made payable to "Joyce Taylor Homan" (note "KidArt" in memo section) by April 17th.

There is a maximum of 12-15 students per class (depending on class room space). Registrations will be processed in the order received. This is a VERY popular class and we are excited about its return to Cub Run this year!!!
